Description	The NSS Committee at DJPS College of Pharmacy Pathri organized a transformative Swachh Bharat Abhiyan - Clean Campus Initiative on February 8, 2023, aimed at instilling a heightened sense of responsibility for cleanliness and hygiene among the student body. The event drew enthusiastic participation from NSS volunteers who engaged in diverse activities, including waste disposal and campus beautification. This hands-on involvement not only contributed to an immediate and tangible improvement in the cleanliness of the campus but also fostered a sense of ownership and pride among the volunteers. Beyond the immediate impact, the initiative was strategically designed to cultivate a sustained commitment to environmental stewardship, encouraging students to proactively maintain a cleaner and healthier campus atmosphere in the long run. The Clean Campus Initiative, therefore, reflected the NSS Committee's dedication to holistic student development, going beyond the physical act of cleaning by fostering a sense of environmental consciousness and personal responsibility. Through initiatives like these, the NSS Committee at [Your College Name] demonstrates its commitment to shaping socially responsible and environmentally aware citizens, contributing to the broader goals of national cleanliness and sustainable living.

Description	The Women Empowerment Club at DJPS College of Pharmacyorganized a powerful event titled "Breaking the Silence: A Forum on Women's Harassment" on September 19, 2022, aimed at fostering social awareness and initiating open discussions on the pervasive issue of harassment faced by women. The forum provided a platform for impactful conversations, featuring distinguished speakers, survivor testimonials, and engaging panel discussions. Attendees gained profound insights into the varied forms of harassment, its impact on victims, and the importance of dismantling societal norms that perpetuate such behavior. The Women Empowerment Club, through this event, actively promoted the notion of breaking the silence surrounding women's harassment and creating a supportive community that advocates for change. Workshops on self-defense and legal rights further empowered participants, equipping them with practical tools to navigate and combat harassment. The event garnered significant attention, not only within the college community but also on social media platforms, amplifying its impact beyond the campus walls. The Breaking the Silence forum stood as a testament to the Women Empowerment Club's dedication to social responsibility, gender equality, and creating a safe space for dialogue that empowers women and challenges societal norms contributing to harassment. The club expresses gratitude to all participants,

Description	The Women Empowerment Club at DJPS College of Pharmacyundertook a significant community service initiative titled "End the Wage Gap Between Women and Men" on June 8, 2022, with a primary focus on addressing gender-based pay disparities. The event aimed to raise awareness about the persistent wage gap and advocate for equal pay for equal work. The Women Empowerment Club organized seminars, panel discussions, and awareness campaigns to shed light on the underlying causes and consequences of the wage gap. Engaging with both the college community and the broader public, the club emphasized the importance of dismantling systemic barriers that contribute to unequal compensation. The event not only sought to inform but also encouraged dialogue, fostering a deeper understanding of the issue and inspiring collective action. Through collaborative efforts, the Women Empowerment Club aimed to instigate positive change and contribute to a more equitable society where individuals are compensated based on merit rather than gender. The success of this initiative underscores the club's commitment to challenging societal norms, promoting gender equality, and actively working towards ending the wage gap. The Women Empowerment Club expresses appreciation to all participants, speakers, and volunteers whose dedication made this event a meaningful step toward a fair and inclusive future.

Description	The NSS Committee at DJPS College of Pharmacyconducted a vital social awareness initiative, the "Medical Camp & Screening Test for Women," on May 7, 2022. This event was designed to address the health needs of women in the community by offering comprehensive medical check-ups and screening tests. The camp aimed to raise awareness about preventive healthcare measures, emphasizing early detection and timely intervention. In collaboration with healthcare professionals, the NSS Committee provided a range of medical services, including screenings for common health issues affecting women. The event witnessed active participation from the community, with women availing themselves of the healthcare services and engaging in informative sessions on women's health. The initiative not only contributed to immediate health check-ups but also fostered a sense of health consciousness and empowerment within the community. By prioritizing women's health and well-being, the NSS Committee demonstrated its commitment to social responsibility and community welfare. The success of the Medical Camp & Screening Test for Women reflects the positive impact that collaborative efforts between educational institutions and healthcare professionals can have on promoting overall community health and awareness. The NSS Committee extends gratitude to all participants, healthcare providers, and volunteers
